SECOND EDITION.

Wednesday Morning, Jan. 21, '63.

[TELEGRAPHED FOR THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

North Carolina Legislature.

RALEIGH, Jan. 20.

Nearly all of the members were present to-day.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock.

The following bills and resolutions were introduced and referred:

By Mr. White, a bill to incorporate the Vestelsford Toll Bridge Company, on the Catawba River.

By Mr. Smith, of Macon, a resolution to confer with the Governor of Georgia for the purchase of Cotton Card Machinery for the State of North Carolina.

The appointment of Justices of the Peace was postponed to Saturday.

In the House, presentments of grieviances from the citizens of Polk and Cleaveland counties in relation to the refusal of certain persons to accept Confederate notes, and protesting against the exemption of Justices of the Peace under 45 years of age, as well as Militia Officers, which were handed to the Speaker by Judge Saunders and referred.

Mr. Shepperd introduced a resolution to prevent the spread of Small Pox.

Mr. Hendry, of Bertie, introduced a resolution censuring the Richmond Enquirer and other ill tempered journals, in and out of the State, for slandering North Carolina, which were made the order for Thursday next.

Mr. Peebles presented a bill making Confederate notes a legal tender. F.

From the United States.

FREDERICKSBURG, January 19.

The Philadelphia Inquirer, of the 17th, has been received. A despatch, dated Cairo, 16th, says the ram Switzerland had arrived there from the squadron, and brings the news of the surrender, on Sunday, of the Arkansas Post, on the Arkansas river, 100 miles from the mouth, to the land and naval forces under Porter and McClernand. The rebel loss was 500 killed and wounded and 3,000 to 7,000 prisoners.

A despatch from Fort Henry, dated the 16th, fears that the train which left Pittsburg Landing for Corrinth on Sunday, under escort of 1,600 men, will be captured by the rebels. The latter were receiving artillery to blockade the river.

PETERSBURG, Jan. 19.

The Herald, of the 17th, has received. It contains President Davis' late message in full, and says it is of more than ordinary importance, and evidently is assured by conscious security which has hitherto characterized any manifesto which has eminated from the rebel Executive, and breathes out determination and defiance not justified by what meets the public eye.

The Alabama captured two more vessels—one, the Parker Cook, of Boston, Nov. 30, near St. Domingo, was burnt, the other having a British cargo, was allowed to proceed, but the vessel was boarded.

An arrival from New Orleans says the Harriet Lane has been sent to sea. Faragut has sent the Brooklyn, Scotia and other vessels to recapture her if possible.

Yankees Captured off the Florida Coast.

SAVANNAH, Jan. 17.

Eight Yankee prisoners, captured near St. Augustine, by Captain Dixon's guerrillas, arrived this evening at Oglethorpe barracks, Savannah, under charge of Captain S. W. Mayers. Among the prisoners are a Provost Marshal, a sutler and three merchants.

The party were mounted on borrowed horses, and on a visit to a sugar boiling in the vicinity of the ancient city.

The horses are valuable. The prisoners are to be sent to General Beauregard.

The Ferocious Spirit o Our Adversaries.

A writer in a late number of Blackwood's Magazine, in remarking upon the ferocious spirit exhibited by our adversaries during the present war, says:

It is extraordinary the amount of ferocity which exist among the population of the Northern States, especially among the Puritans of the New England States. The clergy, who are entirely dependent on their congregations, show themselves on this, as on former occasions, ready to pander to the worst passions of the people, and even to take the lead in expressions of ferocity. Even in the churches the war fever rages. "Twenty churches of a night," writes Manhattan from New York, "hold prayer meetings to get recruits." And what is the language of the clergy on these occasions? Here is an instance. The Rev. W. J. Sloane, pastor of the Third Reformed Presbyterian Church of New York, was reported in the newspapers to have said, in a speech, abounding with similar atrocities, "That it was better that the six millions of white men, women and children of the South should the slaughtered than that slavery should not be extinguished," and being censured by an editor for expressing such atrocity, Mr Sloane replied that what he really said was only as follows—"But suppose that emancipation should lead to insurrection!"

"Let this, which I by no means admit be for the present granted; then I affirm that it is better, that every man, woman and child in every rebel State should perish in one widespread and bloody slaughter; better that the land should be as it was; be as when god destroyed the Canaanites, or overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, than that this rebellion should be successful.

Gen. Wadsworth, who has been nominated by the Republicans as their candidate for the Governorship of New York, expresses the feeling of his party in not less ferocious terms. "We intend," he says, "to hold the country together at whatever cost of life, blood and suffering. We will devastate it if necessary, but not survive its dismemberment."

THE FIFTH NORTH CAROLINA.—We learn that Col. McRae's resignation has been accepted by the President. Lieut. Col. P J Sinclair, (formerly editor of the Fayetteville Carolinian) has also resigned.

Capt. Thomas M Garrett, of Bertie, has been promoted to Colonel vice McRae. Col. Garrett was elected to the Senate from Bertie last August, but declined the honor, having determined never to quit the field alive as long as our soil was invaded.

The following promotions have been recently made among the company officers of the Regiment. Lieut. James M Taylor and Isaac E. Pearce, promoted to be Captains, Theodore DeS Deems, George W Armstrong and Robert E Pulley, appointed Second Lieutenants.—Raleigh Progress.

PROMOTIONS.—Capt. C W Bradshaw, of Davidson, has been promoted to Major of the 42d regiment, (Col. Gibbs) vice Underwood, resigned.

Capt. John C Van Hook, of Person, has been promoted to Major of the 50th, (Col. James A Washing,) vice Wortham promoted to Lieutenant Colonel.

John C Baxter, promoted to second Lieutenant in 10th Regiment.

Kinchen R Power, promoted to first Lieutenant in the 3d Regiment.

Lieut. Thomas C. More has been promoted to 1st, and Thomas J. Ivey 2d Lieutenant in company A, 35th Reg't. (Bunting's Light Battery.)—Raleigh Progress.

☞ The New York Express says:—"General Butler, on Saturday, had a prolonged interview with the President, at which Secretary Stanton was present, as were also, for a portion of the time, Secretary Seward and Chase. Gen. Butler, at his urgent request, has obtained permission to visit his home in Lowell, Mass. The important command talked of in the papers for Gen. Butler—that of the Department of the South—was offered him, it is said, by Secretary Stanton, and declined, before it came to the knowledge of the President, who considers it as belonging to General Hunter.

PROSPECTUS OF
THE CHARLESTON MERCURY
A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL, AND LITERARY NEWSPAPER
PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY

THE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Market and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce in the leading seaports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times,) and regular Correspondents in New York, Washington, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters and weekly letters on life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive. Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family circle.

The political creed of the Mercury consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the agent of the States; Free Trade, and an economical Administration of the Government. Its policy is the Union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights.

In the State Mr. Samuel E. Burgess is our regular Agent to make collections and procure new business and subscriptions.

Payment of State Bounty Due Deceased Soldiers.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, N. C.,
ADJUTANT GEN'S OFFICE,
Raleigh, Oct. 17, 1862.

GENERAL ORDERS, 79
No. 2.

The following regulations are published for the information of those persons wishing to draw bounty of deceased soldiers, in accordance with an ordinance of the Convention ratified the 22d day of February, 1862:

REGULATIONS.

1. The payment of bounty to the legal representatives of deceased soldiers is based upon the certificate of the commanding officer of the company, who will state the time of the enlistment of the soldier, the date of his decease in service, the amount of bounty already paid by the State, and the company and regiment to which he belonged.

2. The claimant will make affidavit before a magistrate that he or she is the next of kin to the deceased, according to the provisions of the foregoing ordinance of the Convention, and that there is no other person entitled to make claim. The affidavit of the claimant must be sustained by that of one disinterested witness, that the facts stated are correct within his own knowledge and that he has no interest in the claim. The magistrate administering the oath will certify to the credibility of the witness, and the clerk of the County Court will certify, under seal, that he is an authorized and acting magistrate.

3. If the claimant or claimants be minors, payment will be made to the guardian, upon the production of the proper certificate under the seal of the Court, of his appointment and the sufficiency of his bond—the claim to be proved by him as in other cases.

4. A bounty of fifty dollars, deducting the bounty that may have been previously paid, is due to all persons who may have volunteered for three years or the war, and to all persons mustered into or continued in service under the provisions of the Conscription Act.

From the Savannah Daily Morning News.]

Soft murmur bright Virginia's rille—
Proud waver forests green,
Fair are our Southern hills, and fair
Each vale that lies between.

For murmuring stream, for waving wood,
For mountain and for dell,
Our fathers freely poured out their blood,
Our fathers bravely fell.

Yes! these were bought with purple streams
From many a noble vein;
And where those men unflinching stood
Their sons must stand again.

Unfurl your banners, and go forth!
Ye sons of patriots dead,
And fight ye, as your sires have fought,
Bleed as your sires have bleed.

Rush onward! with the trumpet's note,
And drum's deep roll go forth!
Help to defend from ruthless power
Your brethren of the South.

Fling forth! fling forth! the Bars and Stars
The banner of the brave—
'Till high upon Potomac's stream
Our battle flag shall wave.

With gleaming sword and cannon's roar,
Go teach each daring son
The lesson which was taught his sire,
When freedom's land was won.

Interesting Correspondence.

For the Daily Bulletin.]

MR. BRITTON: Kubli Khan in his raid in Zanada intercepted the following dispatches of McClellan, relating to Stuart's trip into Pennsylvania, last October:

7 A. M., October 9, 1862.

Hon E M. Stanton. Sec. War, U.S.A.:

I have at last succeeded in tolling the rebel Stuart across the Potomac. I will capture all of his rear-driving cattle-lifting caterans. Not one of them can escape,

G. B. McCLELLAN,
Major General Comdg.

10 A. M, October 9.

Stuart is carrying off hundreds of heavy draft horses from the Dutch farmers, and loading himself with plunder, so that he cannot travel. My plan works beautifully; I have him now. G. B. Mc.

2 P. M., October 9.

Stuart is over in Pennsylvania. Bayard and Pleasanton are in pursuit. Shall I send the rebel to Barnum's Museum, or will you have him on exhibition in Washton? G. B. Mc.

10 P. M, October 9.

Stuart is in Chambersburg. He is loading himself with cavalry boots; but I will make him tramp on foot. The fool is waiting to destroy commissary and ordnance stores. There are enough of them to keep him busy all night. All according to my plan. President Lincoln may prepare to crack some of his best jokes.

7 A. M, October 10.

Bayard and Pleasanton have lost trail of the fox, just as I had foreseen,

G. B. Mc.

12 M, October 10.

My cavalry have unearthed the fox.—Have prison room prepared for 2,500 men. Stuart is cumbered with one hundred fat Dutch Burgesses, who can't ride fast, with a thousand Pennsylvania horses, dead beat, and five hundred pack-horses, loaded with plunder. I have him now. Nothing half so glorious was ever done at Sebastopol.

With great satisfaction,

G B McCLELLAN,
Major General Commanding.

4 P M, October 11.

Stuart is approaching White's Ford, opposite Leesburg. A brigade of infantry is holding the ford, Pleasanton is behind him, Bayard is on his right flank and Averill on his left. Did ever silly bird run into such a snare? Where shall I cage him? My beautiful plot is about to end in a cloud of glory. Hurrah for the Union! Down with the rebels.

Proudly and happily yours,

G B McCLELLAN,
Major General Commanding.

7 P M, October 11.

My gallant boys have driven Stuart across the river, Dutch Burgesses, fat horses, cavalry boots and all. "Wayward sisters, depart in peace." Maryland and Pennsylvania are safe. My infantry brigade "changed base" at the ford and let the rebels go into their own beggarly country, but they gallantly and in fine style made mouths at the rebels after they got beyond rifle range. My three cavalry brigades made a handsome charge upon one of Stuart's men and captured him.—No loss on our side, as the man was too drunk to fire his carbine. He tried, however, to shout for Jack Davis, (probably meaning the notorious Jeff.) We have had a glorious triumph. The rebels have been driven off loyal soil forever. Diablus vobiscum.

G ☙ Mc.

THE ALABAMA IN THE TRACK OF THE CALIFORNIA STEAMERS.—A late New York paper says there is much uneasiness in Wall street, and among New York merchants, about three California gold steamers, now at sea and overdue. They are the Ocean Queen, American and Champion. The Alabama was last seen on the 15th December, by the schooner Julia, in the regular route of these vessels, and was then doubtless lying in wait for them.

Port Hudson is a small village on the east bank of the Mississippi, fifteen miles above Baton Rouge, about forty miles below the mouth of the Red River, and I suppose about two hundred and fifty below Vicksburg. It is free from inundation and is as strong as Fort Fillow.

The members of the Legislature are back here and the Yankees are not far off, the latter having occupied Trenton, Jones county, on Saturday last, so an air line less than one hundred miles from the Capitol. Their force is large and the campaign in this State has doubtless commenced, and before our Legislature get well warmed in their seats the clash of arms will have commenced, and the enemy, if not defeated and driven back, will be thundering at our gates.—Raleigh Progress.

To our Correspondents.

We have on hand a large number of Letters from some of our patrons ordering the direction of their paper changed but omitting to state from which office.

Of course we cannot spare the time to run through lists of some ten thousand names to find the name to make the change, hence the orders are not attended to, and the paper will be sent to the old office until a proper order is given.

☞ In your order to make a change please state the name of the office at which you have been receiving your paper as well as the office to which you desire it to be mailed in future, otherwise your order will not receive attention.

The Peace Story Again.

The following appears in the New York Sun:

During the last week Thurlow Weed who has been deputed by President Lincoln to fully examine into the peace proposals and gather from all sources, here and in Europe, the intent and disposition of the rebel leaders, had an interview with Fernando Wood, in this city, and submitted to him informal suggestions on the part of the Government, in reply to the propositions alluded to by a correspondent of the New York Tribune. Should it be necessary he has been authorised to visit Europe, and open negotiations officially with the Southern commissioners residing there. But, thus far, the rebels have not been slow to accept direct negotiation between Richmond and this city. The statement of Governor Seymour, which was made some time since, to the effect that in three months time the Union might be restored, was founded upon facts better established than the public at the time dreamed of being possible.

A Republican View of Lincoln.

Brownson, editor of Brownson's Quarterly Review, a prominent Republican, a candidate for the last Congress, has been on a late visit to Washington, and is not exactly pleased with the way things are going on. We will bring together some of his various and scattered allusions to President Lincoln, "the statesman at the head of the Government:"

"It is not necessary to conceal the fact that the administration is weak in administrative ability, and that its chief has little faculty of magnetizing the men who come in contact with him." * * *

"The President is not the man who inspires you with confidence in his ability to succeed." * * * "The public will not be satisfied with blunders because the President says he is responsible for them" * * * "He is not the right man in the place," * * * "He is not equal to his position, and he should resign and return to private life." * * * "It had been better for the nation if a better man had been elected President, &c., &c.

To Farmers.

The Athens Watchman gives the following seasonable advice to farmers:

We hope every man, woman and child in the Southern Confederacy who has a single acre of tillable land unoccupied by small grain will plant it in peas, corn, potatoes, or something else suitable for man or beast. To do this it is important it should be put in order early. Do then, go to work at once. Let the land be well prepared. If you have, or can get manure, be sure to apply it. Plow deep and plow often. If your ditches are filled up, clean them out, and do everything you can towards getting ready for the greatest corn crop ever grown in these lands. We will need it, whether the war continues or not. Every grain that can be produced will command a high price.

One word more. If you can procure the seed, sow Spring oats. We know that the Fall crop usually succeeds the best, but sometimes Spring oats do well. According to our prognostications the present year will be a great crop year, and Spring oats will do well. Don't neglect sowing if you can find seed.

Take care of your hogs and sheep, your calves and goats, and everything that will make meat. Raise all the poultry you can. There is a constantly growing demand for everything to eat. Don't be afraid of raising too much.

CITY ELECTION.—The election for city officers passed off very quietly on yesterday. The following is the result:

FOR MAYOR.—W H Harrison, re-elected without opposition, receiving 270 votes. This is but a merrited compliment to a faithful and impartial public officer.

The following vote was poled for Commissioners, the three highest in each ward being elected:

Western Ward.—Parker Overby, 89; Thos H Briggs, 58; John Nichols, 54; W H H Tucker, 43; C W D Hutchins, 15.

Middle Ward.—Richard H Battle, 59; R W Haywood, 38; W R Richardson, 36; Scattering 6.

Eastern Ward.—Dr Wm H McKee, 87; David L Royster, 78. J S Overby, 67; W Upchurch, 63; D R H Haywood, 36; Thomas Jenkins, 30; Jordan Womble, Jr., 8.

Wiley Scales was elected Constable in District No 3.

Capt. W. Mayo arrived here by the Gulf train from Florida, on Saturday evening, in charge of eight Yankee prisoners, captured a few days since near St. Augustine, by Capt Dixon's Guerrillas. They were conveyed to the Barracks, where they remained over night, and were sent forward yesterday morning to Gen. Beauregard's headquarters. We did not see the party, but understood that it comprises the Yankee Provost Marshal of St. Augustine, a Sutler, a deserter or two, and three or four Yankee speculators, among them a man by the name of Russell, a native of this city. The party were captured within a few miles of the Ancient City while on an excursion into the country, as they say, to attend a sugar boiling, but more probably they were on a thieving adventure or looking out desirable locations for settlements, in accordance with Eli Thayer's armed colonization scheme. They were well mounted on horses borrowed from their Yankee friends in St. Augustine, all of which fell into the hands of our guerrillas.

As they were taken on Florida soil, which they had invaded for the purpose of carrying out old Abe's emancipation proclamation, and as they have been actually engaged in giving practical effect to that infamous outrage, we trust that they will be turned over to the civil authorities of Florida for trial and punishment.—Savannah News.
